

A bar chart with four bars of decreasing height. The first bar is the tallest, followed by the second, third, and fourth bars in descending order. Each bar is composed of four stacked rectangular segments.